

LAPLAND CENTRAL HOSPITAL

EMERGENCY ROOM

INFORMATION FOR THE PATIENTS

The Lapland Central Hospital has an Emergency room that handles medical emergencies around the clock.

Lapland Central Hospital, Rovaniemi

Address: Ounasrinteentie 22, Rovaniemi

PLEASE Call before you come to the emergency room

tel. 116 117 (without country code)

Visiting the triage nurse in the ER is not free of charge. The triage nurse will assess the need of treatment.

You must pay for the visit before leaving. You will receive a receipt of your payment which you can use in the application for compensation to your insurance company.

Patients whose treatment of an illness or injury cannot be postponed, without the symptoms worsening or the injury becoming more severe, are treated in the emergency room 24 hours a day.

such symptoms include, for example:

- unbearable sudden pain
- a suspected fracture or a profusely bleeding wound
- chest pain, sudden shortness of breath
- sudden paralytic symptoms: blurred speech, one-sided muscle weakness, severe headache, dizziness, confusion, loss of consciousness
- severe or worsening stomach pain
- strong allergic reaction
- high fever and decline in general condition
- profuse bleeding, for example vomiting blood, bleeding wound
- bad earache (the child doesn't stop crying, even when given painkillers)
- suspected dehydration as a result of severe diarrhea and/or vomiting
- urinary retention
- acute mental health problems, such as suicidal thoughts, delusions
- severe withdrawal symptoms from substance use
- poisoning
- sudden back pain and numbness
- extensive burn or frostbite
- at less than 22 weeks of pregnancy, profuse bloody discharge
